Box No. I Basis of this opinion

1. With regard to the language, this opinion has been established on the basis of the international application in the language in which it was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.
 This opinion has been established on the basis of a translation from the original language into the following language _____, which is the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international search (under Rules 12.3 and 23.1(b)).
2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
 - a. type of material
 a sequence listing
 table(s) related to the sequence listing
 - b. format of material
 in written format
 in computer readable form
 - c. time of filing/furnishing contained in international application as filed.
 filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
 furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3. In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims Please See Continuation Sheet	YES
	Claims Please See Continuation Sheet	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims Please See Continuation Sheet	YES
	Claims Please See Continuation Sheet	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims Please See Continuation Sheet	YES
	Claims Please See Continuation Sheet	NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-7, 10-13, 21-32, 36-42, 45-48, 61, 66-68, 77, 78, and 82-84 lack novelty under PCT Article 33(2) as being anticipated by Capan et al. (US 2003/0139594 A1). Capan et al. paragraphs [0047] - [0049] discloses a process substantially equivalent to that of present claim 1. With respect to claims 2-5, Capan et al. paragraph [0033] discloses polymers as recited in the present claims. With respect to claims 6 and 7, Capan et al. paragraph [0022] discloses metals and mixtures thereof as recited in the present claims, which would indicate that the precursors recited in claims 10-13 would be appropriate for use in the Capan et al. process. With respect to claims 21-26, the Capan et al. process includes adding e.g. formic acid and washing.

With respect to claim 27, note that the claim merely requires proving the supported nanoparticles and a reagent "under further providing conditions allowing chemical reactions to occur"; because chemical reactions occur in the processes of Capan et al., the limitations of the present claim are inherently met. With respect to claims 28-32, note Capan et al. paragraph [0033].

With respect to claims 36, 37, 47 and 48, Capan et al. paragraphs [0019] and [0020] indicates that the Capan et al. process involves oxidation and/or reduction. With respect to claims 38 and 39, note Capan et al. paragraph [0022]. With respect to claims 40-42, 66, 67, 77 and 78, note Capan et al. paragraph [0033]. With respect to claims 45 and 68, the Capan et al. process may include hydrogenation; see Capan et al. paragraph [0088] and [0089]. With respect to claim 61, it is clear that varying the relative amounts of the starting materials in Capan et al. would result in a consequent variation in the relative amounts of reduction products.

Finally, with respect to claims 82 and 83, note Capan et al. paragraphs [0088] and [0089], and with respect to claim 84, note Capan et al. paragraph [0022].

In view of the above, the claimed invention cannot be said to be novel in view of the disclosure of Capan et al.

Claims 8, 9, 14-20, 33-35, 43, 44, 46, 49-60, 62-65, 69-76, and 79-81 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(3), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest using any of the particular materials (specific polymers, supercritical fluid; etc.) as recited in the present claims.

Claims 1-84 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus possess industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.

Box No. VIII Certain observations on the international application

The following observations on the clarity of the claims, description, and drawings or on the questions whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:

Claim 32 is objected to under PCT Rule 66.2(a)(v) as lacking clarity under PCT Article 6 because claim 32 is indefinite for the following reason(s): The dependency of this claim appears to be mistaken. Claim 27 (on which claim 32 depends) lacks proper antecedent basis for the term "the plastic support material".
